

Let America be kind hearted again
By Bradyn Schmekel

Let America be Kind hearted again
Let it be the place you want to live.
Let it be the experience you want to have,
Seeking a kind and free home.

(America has always been my home)

Let america be the dream the dreamers dreamed,
Let it be the hope in your heart,
Where everyone can thrive and be free.

(America has always been my home)

O, let my land be the land where all can be free of decision
Crowned with no judgement, loving hearts, and open arms.

(I've never experienced other places than the valley)

I am the young christian boy, separate from others.
I am the product of my family.
I am a man driven to greatness.
Finding who I am and who I am going to be.

Yet, I'm the one who will continue to dream of a day when
We all will have kind and loving hearts, a mind that Doesn't think of hate and disorder, hands that are used for helping not hurting.
